2. Is this Program right for you?

Our Celebrant and Spiritual Practitioner qualification was born out of a deep need for training that combines the spiritual and practical aspects of the passages of life. As metaphysical clergy, you will dedicate your life to contributing to the joy in the lives of others, outside of the confines of doctrine. There are no pre-requisites for this course, except a deep desire to be of service and a personal belief that you are 'more than your physical body'.

Our teachings and courses do not conflict with any traditional religious nor spiritual beliefs, but rather enhance all personal belief systems. This is a qualification for a lifetime, after retirement, or for parents who can set their own schedule. Enjoy the freedom and benefits of being registered metaphysical clergy.

Being a religious marriage Officiant

As Metaphysical Ministers, our belief is in service, and that people express their faith in multiple ways.

CIMM clergy are religious marriage officiants who are registered to perform religious ceremonies. The religion is Metaphysics.

As an ordained CIMM Minister, you are an individual who has been vested or ordained with a religious authority to solemnize marriage in accordance with the "rites and usages" of your religious body (CIMM) therefore you meet the definition of a "religious representative" under the Marriage Act.
